“Wine, alcohol, pharmacologically speaking is not a stimulant – it is a depressant... It is not a stimulant.... It depresses first and foremost the highest centers of all in the brain... They control everything that gives a man self-control, wisdom, understanding, discrimination, judgment, balance the power to assess everything; in other words, everything that makes a man behave at his very best and highest. But drink is something which immediately gets rid of control; that indeed is the first thing it does.” – Martyn Lloyd Jones

5. Let the _____ of _____ dwell in you richly (Col 3:16)

"The Holy Spirit's distinctive new covenant role...is to fulfill what we may call a floodlight ministry in relation to the Lord Jesus Christ.... I remember walking to a church one winter evening... seeing the building floodlit as I turned a corner.... When floodlighting is well done, the floodlights are so placed that you do not see them; you are not in fact supposed to see where the light is coming from; what you are meant to see is just the building on which the floodlights are trained. The intended effect is to make it visible when otherwise it would not be seen for the darkness, and to maximize its dignity by throwing all its details into relief so that you see it properly. This perfectly illustrates the Spirit's new covenant role. He is, so to speak, the hidden floodlight shining on the Savior. Or think of it this way. It is as if the Spirit stands behind us, throwing light over our shoulder, on Jesus, who stands facing us. The Spirit's message is never, "Look at me; listen to me; come to me; get to know me," but always "Look at him, and see his glory; listen to him, and hear his word; go to him, and have life; get to know him, and taste his gift of joy and peace." – J.I. Packer, Keeping in Step with the Spirit
